Dear Parents,

The report into the OP system and tertiary review was released just prior to the holidays and detailed twenty-three recommendations. I urge parents with children in Years 8 and 9 to study the full report, which may be found at http://www.acer.edu.au/queensland-review.

-- Mr Bell

Director of Instrumental Music, who will retire at the end of 2014. Mrs Jones and Mrs Pigott will continue to provide great service to our Instrumental students with an additional classroom teacher to be appointed to support them for next year.

In the coming weeks our film, dance, drama, music and visual art students will present their final events. Please check the updated dates and times in this newsletter.

A busy and exciting time for all our Instrumental students and high achieving students. School Captain nominates for 2015 will be declared at Speech Night. I congratulate the twenty-six Prefect group selected from the outstanding field of Year 11 nominees – this is always a very difficult decision.

Our fifty-sixth annual Speech Night will be held on Tuesday, 29 October. This evening is a celebration of our outstanding academic, cultural and sporting achievements. Congratulations are expected from all students; all are required to remain for the full duration of the evening, showing respect to all of our students.

Each student would achieve a rating between 0 and 60 for each authority subject. The Queensland Core Skills Test and preparation for it would be abolished.

The final report into the OP system and tertiary review was released just prior to the holidays and detailed twenty-three recommendations. Universities would, through Queensland Tertiary Admission Centre, provide the criteria required for entry into their courses.
