Expectations

Students in Music Extension – Performance will be required throughout the course to perform as a Soloist in at least two recitals as part of a larger concert program for members of the wider school community. Students will also be expected to perform on at least two occasions as a member of an Ensemble to an audience other than their regular Music class. Some students may be accepted into the course subject to a satisfactory probation period of one term.

Music Extension – Performance will be studied each week during three normal class lessons allocated for Senior subjects, as well as during Lesson 4 on Wednesday afternoons. Students will be required to attend all Ensemble rehearsal sessions as timetabled.

There is no levy charged to the students for this subject; however some photocopy costs will need to be met by the students. Students may also need to pay for their own Piano Accompanist for Performances.

Students must be prepared to rehearse thoroughly for all Performance Tasks. Daily instrument practice is advisable with the recommended time being five to six hours per week.

Students of Music Extension – Composition and Musicology will be expected to spend at least three hours per week outside of school time engaged in study and research.

A high degree of commitment to the course is expected.
